

Are you aware that black infant and maternal mortality is at a state of crisis?

Are you familiar with preeclampsia?

Who will be delivering my baby?

Do you mind my support person being in the room?

How would you handle massive bleeding during pregnancy or delivery?

Are you comfortable working with black people?

What does culturally competency mean to you?

What is the policy around cultural competency within this health system/clinic?

Have an Advocate/ Support Person During Pregnancy

(Doula's, your partner family member, friend, etc.)